ALLIED FORCES OCCUPY PANTELLARIA

Naval Base That Has Served As Italy's Malta

Secret Fortifications Prove Failure: Mussolini's Fleet Cut In Twain

LONDON, June 11.

It is announced from the Allied Headquarters in North Africa that Pantellaria has surrendered.

New York: Pantellaria is being occupied by Allied forces according to an Associated Press Algiers despatch.

Algiers: Early this morning, a white flag was displayed on the hill mount "Saint Elmo" behind Pantellaria harbour. The military commander was immediately informed and took dispositions to occupy the island.

37 ENEMY AIRCRAFT SHOT DOWN

To-day's 'communique' from Allied Headquarters in North Africa announces: "The bombing of Pantellaria continued on the night of June 9th and 10th and yesterday when heavy attacks were made throughout the day. 37 enemy aircraft were shot down in combat during these attacks and two were destroyed by aircraft on offensive patrol over the Tyrrhenian Sea. From all these operations, six of our aircraft are missing."

REPEATED ATTACKS

ROME: To-day's 'communique' announces continued and uninterrupted attacks by powerful airformations on Pantellaria. The text of the 'communique' says, "Powerful enemy formations composed of fighters and bombers throughout yesterday and last night continued repeated and uninterrupted attacks on Pantellaria.

INITIAL RESISTANCE

ALGIERS: An American broadcast said that the landing on Pantellaria by ground assault troops was started at twelve noon. Although the commander of the Island had signalled his willingness to surrender, his information had not reached some elements of the Axis force and there was some initial resistance. All the first Allied objectives were reached 22 minutes after the first landing. The assault troops were supported by strong naval units including cruisers and destroyers which had been bombarding the Island in support of the aerial offensive.

Italy's Malta

The news of the surrender came shortly after Rome had announced that a second request for surrender had been turned down. With the surrender of Pantellaria, the first 30 square miles of Italian soil fall into the Allied hands. This important island, rooted like a solitary tooth halfway across the Sicilian narrows, is part of metropolitan Italy. It is included in the province of Trapani. A naval base that has served as Italy's Malta, Pantellaria is the first of four vital Axis outpost islands to be conquered by Allied arms. The other three which now lie exposed on the invasion path to southern Europe are Sicily, Sardinia and Corsica. Pantellaria's occupation brings the Allied Forces within 63 miles of Sicily and 250 miles of the toe of Italy.

It has taken the British and American air forces only one month to soften for invasion the fortress which Sgr. Musselini has been fortifying for seven years. Like Tunis and Bizerta its "secret" fortifications proved a failure.

"USEFUL NAVAL HEDGEHOG"

During the earlier stages of the long and bitter Mediterranean war, Pantellaria was a useful naval "Hedgehog" and Italian torpedo-boats are believed to have operated from there during the air and sea battles which raged about British convoys in the narrow stretch known as "bomb valley". Even before Italy came into the war, Axis observers were reported to be using Pantellaria for a constant watch on British and French naval movements. From its airfield, in the days of the Historic Malta convoys, the "Luftwaffe" and the "Regia Aeronautica" directed their massive blows at British supply ships.

Two miles south-east of the harbour is the island's solitary aerodrome which has been heavily and continuously battered from air. From its underground hangars, German and Italian planes kept up the reputation of "bomb alley". Civilians who number between 9,000 and 10,000 in peace time have certainly found refuge from Allied bombing and shelling in the numerous caves beneath the volcanic rocks that rise to a peak of 2,700 feet.

MUSSOLINI'S FLEET CUT IN TWAIN

LONDON:— With Pantellaria in their hands, the Allies now have command of the central portion as well as the south shore of the Gulf of Sicily, writes Reuter's Italian observer. Signor Mussolini's fleet is now cut in half between the Tyrrhenian sea and the Aelon sea. To join up these portions the fleet would either have to negotiate the Straits of Messina or slip through the dangerous 50 mile gap between Pantellaria and the mainland. The Italian boast about the importance of Pantellaria in the past is a measure of what its loss means to Mussolini's Defence system.—Reuter.

INVASION SHIPS IN CHANNEL PORTS

STOCKHOLM, June 11

Air reconnaissance has disclosed the presence of concentrations of light invasion ships in the British Channel ports said Rear-Admiral Luetzow the German naval spokesman, according to "The Aftonbladet."

Rear-Admiral Luetzow added: "This does not mean, however, that the action is imminent since such concentrations have already been noted from time to time.—Reuter.

GERMANS PREPARE AGAINST INVASION

LONDON, June 11

Reuter's correspondent inside Europe wires:—German preparations against invasion have now extended even to the Swedish-Norwegian Frontier where a special defence line with bunkers round strategic points has been built. All land approaches to Oslo are being fortified. Many new defence experts from Germany have arrived. Most of the workers in German war factories now are reported to be Russians, French and Belgians. The campaign for "volunteers" from France is being intensified. The deportation of Lorrainers goes on a large scale.—Reuter.

NEW YORK: The surrender of Pantellaria—Italy's Gibraltar—after nearly three weeks' ceaseless aerial and naval bombardment is proclaimed with banner headlines in all newspapers in America.—Reuter.

Roosevelt On Mussolini's Betrayal

WASHINGTON, June 11

President Roosevelt disclosing this morning that Pantellaria had surrendered told the Italian people that their choice of Government would be free once the Germans were driven from Italy and the Fascist regime was overthrown.

At his morning press conference, he disclosed that he had received advice from General Eisenhower that Pantellaria had surrendered and white flags were flying over the island. President Roosevelt said that Mussolini had betrayed his own country in a strugggie for personal power and aggrandisement. These acts. were not those of the Italian people. Evil aggressions were committed by the Fascist regime in the name of the Italian people but that regime did not actually represent the Italian people whom he described as a peace-loving nation. But President Roosevelt went on "We have no choice but to prosecute the war against the armies of Mussolini and his Government until complete victory is attained."—Reuter.

DE GAULLE DEMANDS PURGE OF PRO-VICHY ELEMENTS

LONDON, June 11

Reuter's special correspondent from Algiers wires: There was no meeting this morning of the French Committee of Liberation and the deadlock continues.

General de Gaulle and General Giraud had no official contact, though unconfirmed rumours suggest that informal talks are proceeding.

No reference to the crisis appears in the Algiers press.

De Gaulle's Demand

ALGIERS, June 11

American broadcast dealing with the fresh de Gaulle-Giraud crisis says that it is understood that General de Gaulle has demanded an assurance that a complete purge be effected of the pro-Vichy elements in the Upper ranks of the French Army.

In a letter addressed to members of the Liberation Committee, Gen de Gaulle asked for the appointment to the French General Staff of Officers who can be trusted to carry out a thorough going purge.

NEW DEAN OF K. E. M. HOSPITAL

Medical Relief Committee And Commissioner Differ

About Appointment

The Medical Relief Committee of the Municipal Corporation considers it desirable to invite applications to fill the post of the Dean of K. E. M. Hospital and Seth Gordhandas College.

The Municipal Commissioner, differs from this view and recommends Dr. R. P. Koppikar, the Acting Dean, for the appointment, and states:

Of the officers connected with the K. E. M. Hospital and Seth G. S. Medical College, Dr. R. P. Koppikar, M.B., B.S. (Bombay), M.S. (Bombay), F.C.P.S., is the most senior. He has been attached to the Seth G. S. Medical College since its inception. His University career was distinguished and before his appointment as Professor of Anatomy at the Seth G. S. Medical College in 1925, he had held several appointments at Demonstrator, Clinical Registrar, Tutor, Lecturer, etc., in other institutions. He has got experience of administration of his Department for over 16 years. In 1932-33 he had gone on study leave to Europe for about six months and in the course of his tour had visited several medical institutions.

He thus possesses the necessary qualifications and from what I have seen of his work, I consider that he is fit for being appointed to the vacant post.

In case my recommendation is approved, I shall submit proposals for carrying out the duties of the post of Professor of Anatomy during the three years of Dr. Koppikars' appointment as Dean of the K. E. M. Hospital and Seth G. S. Medical College. I request that this may please be treated as Urgent Business."

Amery On Indian Political Advance Through Understanding

LONDON, June 10.

The Secretary of State for India, Mr. L. S. Amery opening an exhibition of India galleries in London yesterday afternoon said:

"We hope that the problems of war administration will be history before very long. The much vexed problems of Indian politics of today have after all arisen during the past generation and will without doubt be modified beyond all recognition before the next generation is out." It was only by understanding that the inner life of a people that they could understand and sympathise with them and share in their life in the political field.

"IF WE ARE TO MAKE THE INDIAN AND BRITISH PEOPLES FEEL LIKE ONE FAMILY AS PARTNERS, it is in the interests of India to understand our aspirations and traditions and even more in our interests to understand and sympathise with India's heritage of art and literature and India's hopes of greater development."

Among those present were the High Commissioner for India Sir Samuel Runganadhan and Lady Ranganadhan. They have just returned from America.—Reuter.

Standing Committee To Meet In Bombay On July 14

NEW DELHI, June 11.

The President, All-India Newspaper Editors' Conference, has fixed July 14 and 15 for the next meeting of the Standing Committee of the Conference in Bombay, announces Mr. J. N. Sahani, Convener.

Provincial Conveners are requested to summon meetings of Provincial Committees and inform the Convener at once of the subjects they wish to be included in the agenda. After these suggestions are received, the formal agenda will be communicated to members.—A. P.

REAL HITCH IN MINISTRY-MAKING

(From Our Correspondent).

ALLAHABAD, June 11.

Hindu Sabhaites in U. P. do not seem in a mood to allow any Muslim to become Premier. The same trouble appears to have arisen in Bihar and in other Hindu majority Provinces.

The Muslim League is probably awaiting final instructions from Mr. Jinnah. Regarding Muslim representation in the Ministry equal representation will be demanded.

Congress M. L. A. Warns Against U. P. Ministry Move

LUCKNOW, June 11.

Mr. Gopinath Srivastava, a prominent Congress M. L. A., and a former Parliamentary Secretary, U. P., has issued the following statement:—

"Besides newspaper speculations about the formation of a Coalition Ministry in U. P., circular letters impressing the desirability of such a move have been issued by an organisation, representatives of which have been and are approaching individual members of the Legislature. Certain members have sought my advice. As is pretty well-known, many members of the Congress Party in the U. P. Legislature including its leader and secretary, are under detention, and those of us who are out, constitute by far the large party inside the Legislature. In consultation with other friends I shall, and when it is deemed proper and opportune, convene a meeting of the Congress Party to decide upon our line of action in this regard. Till such time I hope and expect members of the Party will not express individual opinions or act independently.—A. P.

BAGHDAD, June 11.

The Iraqui Parliament has passed a Bill amending the organic law which provides for a limited monarchy and responsible Government.

The decision to amend the law was reached after a long debate. The Chamber of Deputies also decided that new elections shall be held immediately.—Reuter.

Surprise For Japs

NEW YORK, June 11.

Airships carrying "a brood of planes" could be a powerful striking force in the South Pacific, said the former Airship Commander Rear-Admiral Charles F. Rosendahl in a speech here. The planes, he said, could leave the mother ship to bomb their objectives and then return to their flying base. Rear-Admiral Rosendahl added: "I doubt very much if the Japanese would know where the planes came from."

COALMINE OWNERS' NEW MOVE

WASHINGTON, June 11.

American coalmine owners have formally notified the United Mine Workers' Union that they are breaking off negotiations pending instructions from the War Labour Board.

"Another Step To Political Tyranny"

A new crisis in the coal industry was foreshadowed on Thursday following the announcement by the Coal Administrator Mr. Harold Ickes that miners who strike after the expiry of the truce on June 20th will be liable to a fine of a dollar per day under the old working contract.

The miners bitterly resent this announcement, according to reports from Virginia and Kentucky. One union leader at Harlanky said: "Such penalties will only inflame the men and make them walk out again."

Mr. John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers Union to-day described Mr. Ickes' announcement as "another step to political tyranny", adding: "it is an unwarranted, illegal act which takes nearly three million dollars worth of food from the fingers and mouths of the children of mining camps—a brutal application of economic sanctions against free citizens."

The Congress of Industrial Organisations, the United States Labour Body of which Mr. Philip Murray is the head, has telegraphed to Senators urging them to oppose the Anti-Strike Bill on the grounds that it is "a punitive measure against patriotic American workers".

Southern Coal owners to-night advised the chairman of the Coal Wage Conference Negotiating Committee that they were withdrawing from any further collective bargaining proceedings with the United Mine Workers.—Reuter.

Police Unearth Dynamites In Locked Room

NEW DELHI, June 10.

LONDON, June 11

Seven backbench Labour members of Parliament have issued a declaration announcing the establishment of a "council for the International recognition of Indian Independence" whose avowed aim is to "obtain a solemn guarantee from the United Nations for India in exercise of those rights proclaimed in the Atlantic Charter as belonging to all peoples". The declaration is also signed by Professor George Catlin, a well-known writer on Political and Constitutional affairs and former Professor of Politics at Cornell University.—Reuter.

Mahatma's Letter In Assembly Session

Adjournments For Central Legislature Include Federal Court Verdict

NEW DELHI, June 11.

The Federal Court judgment declaring the Defence of India Rule 26 as "ultra vires" and Government's refusal to forward Mahatma Gandhi's letter to Mr. Jinnah are among topics dealt with in nine adjournment motions so far tabled for the forthcoming Central Assembly Session.

One of the two motions in the name of Sardar Sant Singh seeks to raise a debate on the withholding of the Mahatma's letter to the Muslim League President.

KAZMI'S SEVEN MOTIONS

Mr. M. A. Kazmi, who has tabled the remaining seven motions wants to discuss Government's "failure" to release detenus after the Federal Court's judgment on Defence of India Rule 26; Government's "failure" to take the initiative in the matter of legislation regarding urgent and important matters in the country leaving it entirely to the Governor-General to meet the difficult situation by issuing ordinances; also Government's "failure" to take steps to resolve the political deadlock, at the same time making a solution impossible by continuous refusal to permit interviews with Mahatma Gandhi and other leaders.

Mr. Kazmi also proposes to raise a debate on the food, cloth and small-change situation and detention of people without proving charges before a tribunal.—A. P.

SPLIT AMONG UNIONISTS?

Mamdot's Mission To League Leader And Its Sequel

(From Our Correspondent)

LAHORE, June 11.

Trouble is brewing in Muslim Parliamentary circles of the Punjab over the Jinnah-Sikandar Pact Nawab of Mamdot, President of the Punjab Provincial League, whose entry into politics was mainly due to the late Sir Sikandar Hyat Khan after the Nawab's father's death in 1941 is making a bid for power.

The Nawab is insistent that the Pact should no longer remain an academic issue for expression of individual opinion and interpretations, but should form the basis of practical politics in the province. He asserts that the formation of the League Parliamentary Party inevitably means the end of the Unionist Party and apparently there cannot be two overlapping primary parties in the same Legislature.

POSITION OF ALLIES

The League Parliamentary Party's position that of agent of League its non-Muslim Allies should not, therefore, feel shy of accepting the position that they are Allies of League's agents.

The Nawab's recent visit to the League Leader at Karachi in response to a telegram has infused new interest into the League versus Unionist controversy and speculation is rife about Mr. Jinnah's intentions. It is not improbable that under the circumstances a raging political campaign may be launched in the Punjab under Mr. Jinnah's leadership for rallying Muslim community to the League which means irreparable split in the Unionist leadership.

U. S. GAULEITERS TO RULE GERMANY

(From A Special Correspondent

LONDON, June 11.

A writer in the weekly "Tribune" says that the word "Gauleiter" has been adopted in Britain and America for administrators the Governments intend to put in charge of Axis and Axis-dominated countries.

Mr. Kingsbury Smith's article in the American "Mercury" on "Our Government plan for post-war Germany" appears something like real. It popularises the idea of the U. S. A. Government Gauleiter School at Charlottesville. The War Department alone is planning to train there more than a thousand American administrators for the task of governing post-War Germany. Navy and a great number of civilian experts from various Government Departments will begin training in the same task. All the men assembled at the Gauleiter School are initiated in the art of military Government.

The school is to train the people for the task of preventing a revolution in Germany and in Britain: and the men are trained in the usual urgent necessities of the local Government and military administration.

BOLD LEAD BY FILMISTAN

Led by the redoubtable Rai Bahadur Chuni Lall and supported by the demonstrated ability of producer S. Mukerji and his team, Filmistan, the new-born company of youthful veterans has started its career with a ste in a commendable direction. It is announced that the constitution of Filmistan Ltd., provides for the setting apart of a substantial percentage of the gross annual profits for distribution among the workers. With a team that made 'Jhoola' and 'Kismet' and with a managing director like Rai Bahadur Chuni Lall who has already secured a minimum guarantee of five lakhs of rupees per picture, those profits are bound to be considerable. No wonder if the men working in Filmistan would learn to regard it as their own concern, and give it the unreserved loyalty that only a sense of identity can inspire. The bold lead of the Company deserves to be copied by other movie concerns.

Rai Bahadur Chuni Lall, General Manager of Filmistan.

Seth Govindram Sekhsaria (right) with Mr. K. D. Modi, director, at the Bombay Talkies Studio, Malad.

Sheth Govindram Seksaria, Bombay's prominent businessman and industrialist paid his first visit to the Bombay Talkies' Studios at Malad after his joining the managing agency of the company. Accompanied by Mr. K. D. Mody, the director-in-charge, Sheth Govindram was cordially received at the studios by Mrs. Devika Rani Rai, Mr. Amiya Chakrabarty and other officials and was taken round the various departments of the studios. He was greatly interested in seeing the shooting of the Company's new picture now under production.

'Manglagour' A Perfect Comedy

The long queues of cinegoers in almost every show attest to the overwhelming popularity of Navyug's 'Pahili Manglagour', now running in 12th record-breaking week at Central among women.

And this popularity is mainly to be attributed to the homely and domestic spirit that permeates the whole picture.

"RANEE" AT SUPER TALKIES

No other picture of Barua has elicited so much unqualified tributes from film-fans as "Ranee", which was released last week at the Super Talkies and which is drawing crowded houses every day.

MEMORABLE SCENE IN "MANCHALI"

The Talwar picture "Manchali" (at New West End) is sprinkled with impressive and delightful scenes. Few episodes in any picture, however, could be so telling as the simple incident in "Manchali" of the hero, a healthy young man, being fondly taken on a stretcher by order of his mother. It is a simple enough scene, but devastating in its satire, a more eloquent comment on the mental stature of traditional aristocracy than an entire oration could manage.

Ranjit's 'Shadi' is continued amidst great applause and enthusiasm for the fourth week. Rich in music, rich in story this picture is not liked only by the masses but classes also. You will like to Khurshid singing enchantingly. You will like the acting of Motilal, Madhuri and Ishwarlal.

SONG-AND-DANCE EXTRAVAGANZA

A smooth story, excellent direction, fine portrayal by well-known stars such as Ratnamala, Umakant, Jeevan and Leela Pawar, Mr. S. N. Tripathi's music and, last but not least, the charming multi-provincial dance sequence of Chiman Seth are some of the strong points of "Panghat" Prakash Pictures' latest song-and-dance extravaganza which is now in the third week at the Lamington Talkies.

'SHARDA'—21ST WEEK AT MINERVA

Kardar Productions' maiden musicomedy 'Sharda' is now in its 21st week at the local Minerva Talkies. It stars Mehtab, Ullhas, Wasti, Nirmala and A. Shah. Directed by Mr. A. R. Kardar, and set to lilting music by Mr. Naushad, 'Sharda' offers a sumptuous feast of entertainment.

Their second picture 'Namaste' will have its All-India Premiere at Karachi on 25th June at the Taj Mahal Theatre.

'KASHINATH' 13TH WEEK AT KRISHNA

New Theatres' newest production 'Kashinath', universally applauded by critics is drawing crowded houses even in its 13th week at the local Krishna Talkies. Adapted from Sarat Chatterjee's novel, the film stars Ashitbaran, Sunanda Devi, Bharati Devi, Nawab, Baby Latika and boy Buddha Deo.

TURN your money into Beauty

Savings can be kept in a stocking or a safe or out of sight in scrip, but in India man traditionally puts his riches into Jewels for his Beloved. In this is worldly wisdom, for not only is his wealth converted into a never ending delight, but also it is safely invested. The flawless stones and impeccable workmanship of jewellery by Nanubhai will remain lovely and precious through the years.

IS THIS JUSTICE?

The way the Central Government are trying to circumvent normal legal procedure in dealing with alleged political offences even in face of strong criticism by the highest courts of law makes people wonder if justice is possible in political cases. When the Federal Court held that Rule 26 of the Defence of India Rules was invalid as it went beyond the powers conferred by the Defence of India Act, Government, instead of releasing the persons wrongfully imprisoned or at least improving the Rule in the light of the Federal Court's criticism of it, sought to validate it by issuing another Ordinance amending the Defence of India Act itself. The Calcutta High Court, in the more recent case arising out of the "habeas corpus" application made on behalf of nine security prisoners detained under Rule 26, held that the new Ordinance validating the Rule was itself 'ultra vires' on the plea that the Governor-General did not possess the right to amend an Act of the Indian Legislature. As this decision is the subject of an appeal before the Federal Court, we shall not discuss its merits. But we cannot refrain from strongly protesting against Government's policy in re-arresting under Regulation III of 1818 all the nine security prisoners who had stood released under the High Court decision. That Regulation was passed a century and a quarter ago in totally different circumstances and has become utterly obsolete. For that very reason Government have been issuing fresh ordinances to deal with present conditions. Resorting to the obsolete law to circumvent the High Court decision is negation of justice and misuse of power.

The Federal Court, upholding this view of the Calcutta High Court, also held that some vital sections of the Special Courts Ordinance were invalid. Accordingly, the Governor-General, while repealing the Special Courts Ordinance, has issued another providing that the sentences passed under the Ordinance now repealed will be deemed to have been passed by ordinary courts under the Criminal Procedure Code and subject to such rights of appeal as are permitted under the Code. This is not enough. There must be a retrial of the cases decided by the Special Courts. Besides the rights of appeal may be utterly illusory when the Executive can pounce upon persons released by the highest courts of law and can pursue them with weapons either specially forged or brought out of a century old armoury. We have often been told that under British rule there is "reign of law", whatever happens, and this has often been contrasted with the Fascist regime of wanton assaults on law and justice. But one fails to note a contrast when the Executive persistently circumvents court decisions on the principle of "Ham Karen So Qaida."

Significant Statement

Mr. Curtin, the Australian Premier, is not a man easily to be reassured or satisfied. In fact his record has so far been that of a man almost determined to be alarmed and panicky and to refuse to put dangers in their proper perspective. Any unusual activity by Japan, however unimportant, used to be interpreted by him and his colleagues as the sure sign that something terrible was irresistibly approaching Australia and that Australia was helpless to avert it. The interpretation was inevitably followed by a loud and insistent demand for more and more help. It is such a man who has been forced to make this declaration after his conference with General MacArthur:

"It was a good day and from the point of view of Australia I feel that the pressure of this country is to be thrown back on to the enemy. I do not think that the enemy can now invade the country."

Something so tremendous has happened that it has convinced even Mr. Curtin of the security of Australia and possibility also of a mistake in continuing to complain. It may be that the Americans have treated Mr. Curtin to some plain-speaking. But more than that it is clear that Mr. Curtin's persistent demands have borne fruit and that America has concentrated and is concentrating sufficient strength in the South-West Pacific not to save Australia—she was never in serious danger after the battles of Midway and the Coral Sea—but to start some sort of aggressive campaign against the Japs even to satisfy a man like Mr. Curtin. But what about China?

Unwarranted Interference

One of the resolutions to be discussed by the next meeting of the Bombay University Senate rightly protests against the attempt on the part of the Director of Public Instruction "to exercise control and supervision over affiliated colleges that are not maintained or aided by Government, by requiring them to submit weekly reports on 'the discipline of the institution' under various detailed heads, including the attendance and conduct of the staff." It is no business of the Director to interfere in the internal administration of unaided colleges. Government have doubtless the right under the University Act to grant or withhold affiliation to the University, though in practice even that right is a piece of formality, the University itself judging whether or not the affiliation is deserved. Once this right is exercised, Government are, as pointed out by the resolution before the Senate, "functus officio", and the control and supervision thereafter vests in the University to the extent prescribed in the Bombay University Act, while the day to day management and administration rests with its proprietors (Government or private body as the case may be). For the Director to meddle in the day to day work of an unaided college is an affront to the college and the University. It is unmitigated impertinence to demand reports on the conduct of the professors and other members of the staff.

It appears that the Principal of the H. L. Commerce College, Ahmedabad, declined to furnish weekly reports, as required by the Director, and that the latter, unable to touch the college, penalised the holders of Government scholarships at the college by depriving them of their scholarships. It behoves the University to which the college is affiliated to protest strongly against such unworthy victimisation and also against the D. P. I.'s policy referred to in the resolution in question. As the resolution is to be moved by no less a person than Sir Chimanlal Setalvad, a veteran educationist and ex-Vice-Chancellor of the University, we trust it will be unanimously supported by non-official members of the Senate.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

A Mere Outpost

Said an American broadcast on Thursday last: "Our naval forces are maintaining a 24-hour blockade around Pantelleria and the island has no hope of getting reinforcements by sea." Moreover, the island is being subjected day and night to bombardment by the British Navy and bombing by the greatest concentration of aircraft ever brought to bear on any single target in and around the Mediterranean. Pantellaria could not stand up to such a terrific attack and has fallen But Pantelleria is no more than a fortified observation post in front of the Axis line, so to speak, and it will have taken almost a fortnight to reduce. The real "invasion" will begin with the attack on Sardinia and Sicily. But they, however, important, are not the main but the first line of defence.

Need For Hurry

That means that the Allies have to hurry if they are to take some of the weight off Russia. Some British commentators have suggested that Hitler expected the liquidation of Tunisia not earlier than the beginning of August and serious operations against Europe correspondingly later. Meanwhile, he would, he had hoped, strike a crippling blow on Russia and be comparatively free to deal with an Allied invasion. But Tunisia fell two and a half months earlier. His plans were entirely upset, so that he has not even started the offensive against Russia. But even if all this reading of the situation is correct, the main blow will fall on Russia according to Mr. Churchill who has also given the warning that it is now impending. The sooner, therefore, the Allies begin their own operations the less difficult it will be for the Russians to bear the main weight of the war against the Axis.

Wadia Maternity Hospital

The report of the Nowrosjee Wadia Maternity Hospital, Bombay, for the year 1942 testifies to the high standard of efficiency which the Hospital has maintained for the last many years. The maternal mortality in the hospital shows a welcome steady fall, being .98 per cent in 1942 as compared with 1.13 in 1941 and 1.2 in 1940. What is more encouraging is that the mortality in the "booked" confined cases was as low as .36 per cent and in the booked anti-natal cases was lower still, namely .32 per cent. Figures like these not only compare well with those of the best hospitals in the country but also show how far maternal mortality can be reduced through anti-natal care. This reform has already achieved wonderful results in India but there is still much scope for it. There should be many more free maternity hospitals all over the country and they should be well equipped, with special reference to anti-natal care. Unfortunately many hospitals are now handicapped by the high cost of drugs and other hospital requisites. The report of the Wadia Hospital shows that it will have to incur expenses of approximately Rs. 50,000 more in 1943 than the yearly grant from the Government of Bombay and the Bombay Municipal Corporation. A maternity hospital safeguards the health and lives of children as well as mothers and should never suffer for lack of funds. We trust the extra emergency grants will be readily sanctioned by the Government and the Corporation.

Sugar Rationing

The rationing of sugar as from the 6th of June 1943 in the city of Bombay has come as a painful surprise to all. If there is no scarcity of the material and no scarcity is to be felt in the near future as the Government's spokesman says, one wonders why the authorities have fixed the quota at such a low level. According to the scheme now laid down, an adult would get 10 oz. of sugar per week or roughly 25 tolas. This means he will have nearly 3 1/2 tolas per day—sufficient for two cups of tea. And what about children below the age of 12? They are to be content with one cup of sugared tea a day! Then, again, what about the majority of people who cannot do without sweet-meats? Obviously they have to do without sweet-meats or find some other means of obtaining sugar, obviously the black-market. Which course the people are going to choose is to be learned from experience. Anyway the Government's rationing scheme in general and the fixation of the quota at such a low level in particular will go a long way to encourage "black-marketing" of sugar in this place.

Then, again, those who board in boarding houses or in hotels and consequently whose ration cards are deposited in the Boarding House or the Hotel as the case may be, have to get their quota of sugar from the shop where the hotelwalla has registered his card. It is very inconvenient and difficult for self-respecting people to wait at the pleasure and convenience of the hotelwalla. Hence I would suggest to the Authorities another scheme, by which this trouble and inconvenience can be saved. For the first time only the boarder should be asked to produce his ration card to get his rationed quantity of sugar Thereafter the production of the bill which is issued by the respective ration shops should suffice and the production of the ration card should not to be insisted upon.

Retreat Or Defeat ?

In his letter to Gandhiji, Lord Linlithgow had stated most emphatically, that Gandhiji, in due course would have to face at trial! Now the S. of S. Mr. Amery has said in the House of Commons, that "the Government of India have no intention of staging a trial of Mr. Gandhi and other detained Congress leaders"!! So, is this a strategic retreat? On moral defeat? Or both?

B. F. BHARUCHA.

Appeal To Muslims

I owe an apology to my Hindu brethren for inviting them to give thoughtful consideration to Mr. Jinnah's Delhi speech, which I thought was conciliatory. After the shocking statement just made by him on Gandhiji's letter, it is futile to expect any decent move from him. Mr. Jinnah stands thoroughly exposed to-day—hoist on his own petard.

I would appeal to real patriots, men of thought and action, brave sons of Islam, who may still be found—in spite of the stifling atmosphere, and baneful dictatorship of the League—amongst my co-religionists and would ask them:—How long would you allow yourself to be bamboozled into jeopardising the interests of your motherland, her goal of independence, nay her very existence as a self-respecting country to have a voice in the comity of Nations at the end of war? How long? Oh! how long would you go on worshipping at the shrine of a broken idol?

I warn you most solemnly that if you do not shake off the wrong leadership now, and rebel against the hateful dictatorship by taking the helm of affairs in your own hands in order to bring about National Unity, India's case will go by default at the Peace Conference and the present and the future generations will curse your very name.

Fined For Bulletins

BOMBAY, Friday.

Liladhar Lakhamsy who was arrested by the Bombay C. I. D. on December 25 last for alleged possession of Congress bulletins and abetment in distributing them was sentenced to pay fine of Rs. 150 or in default to suffer one month's R. I. on the first charge by Mr. I. S. Haji Presidency Magistrate Mazagaon Police Court this afternoon. He was acquitted on the second charge. The Police Prosecutor applied for the confiscation of the car which was alleged to have been used for the distribution of the Congress bulletins. This was objected to by the counsel of Dr. Miss Hiramani, who claimed to be the owner of the car. The Magistrate thereupon issued notices to the parties concerned.

Corporation Gets Extension

The Director of information, Bombay, writes:—

The City of Bombay Municipal Corporation (Extension of Term) (Amendment) Act of 1943, having received the assent of His Excellency the Governor, is published in the "Bombay Government Gazette."

The term of office of the Corporation was due to expire on April 1, 1942. It was, however, extended by two years and it is now to be extended for a further period of one year, until April 1, 1945.

In order to hold elections on the basis of adut franchise, it is necessary to amend the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, in respect of qualifications of voters, preparation of electoral rolls, conduct of elections and re-distribution of wards. Proposals for the necessary amendments have been prepared by the Municipal Commissioner in the light of the experience gained in the general elections of 1939 and these are under the consideration of the Corporation. It was, however, necessary to carry out the requisite amendments before February, 1943, at the latest, to complete in time the preliminaries prescribed by law for holding the elections in 1944.

It will take a considerable time for the Corporation and the Government to come to final conclusions in regard to the proposed amendments. The redistribution of wards is essential as the number of voters is expected to be over 6,50,000 and in some of the more thickly populated wards the number will be as great as 50,000 if the old number of wards is retained. The extension of the life of the Corporation until April 1, 1945 is, therefore, considered necessary.

Indian Merchants' Criticise New Ordinance On Control Of Capital

The Committee of the Indian Merchants' Chamber have addressed a detailed communication to the Government of India, drawing attention to the various objectionable features of the recent Ordinance relating to Excess Profits Tax and amendments to the Defence of India Rules controlling capital issues.

They have referred to the complaints made in the past about the delays and vagaries connected with the Income-tax administraton and have pointed out that if suggestions for reforming the administrative machinery made from time to time had been implemented, collection of taxes would not have been in arrears to the extent of Rs. 100 Crores, as reported, and the necessity for resorting to the procedure of provisional assessment would not have arisen. They have expressed their apprehension that the method of provisional assessment was bound to cause inconvenience and harassment to the assessees.

E. P. T. DEPOSIT

Referring to the new provision for a compulsory deposit of 20 per cent of the Excess Profits, the Committee have taken strong objection to the principle underlying the same. In the case of Individuals and Firms paying Super-tax at a higher rate, the outgoings on account of Income-tax, Super-tax and Excess Profits Tax might not leave sufficient margin for payment of 20 per cent deposit. The Committee have, suggested that if Government were intent upon enforcing compulsory deposits, the same should, at all events, not apply in the case of Individuals, Firms and private Limited Companies.

The Committee have strongly objected to the proposal to control bonuses and commissions as even under the existing provisions of the Income-tax Act, the Income-tax Officer had discretionary powers to disallow payments which were deemed to be extraordinary and they have expressed surprise at the proposal of Government to make rules for regulating the extent of the trading stock and stocks of raw materials which could be legitimately held by an assessee.

The Committee have recorded their emphatic protest against the principle of control of capital issues thereby interfering with the flow of capital in business enterprises. Further, they have registered their strong objection to the provision for a savage punishment of five years' imprisonment for breach of any of the provisions relating to control of capital.

In conclusion, the Committee have desired that the draft rules to be framed for the purpose of the above Ordinance and Rules should be circulated, in advance, for eliciting commercial opinion.

AUSTRALIA & FAR EAST

Curtin On Commonwealth's "Special Interests And Responsibilities"

CANBERRA, June 11.

The Prime Minister Mr. Curtin stated that the Commonwealth Government had approved of the general principles of the draft agreement for post-war relief. He added that during all stages of preliminary discussion the Australian Government had stressed its special interests and responsibilities to the Far East.

"It may be expected that Australia will have a major contribution to make to the work of the proposed Committee of the Council for the Far East at the same time doing whatever lies within its power as a producing country to share in the work of the whole organisation," he said. —Reuter.

Marriage Of Mr. Tricumdas Dwarkadas' Nephew

The marriage of Mr. Damodar Devji Damodar, nephew of Mr. Tricumdas Dwarkadas, with Miss Nirmala Dhanji Purshottam, was celebrated at Picket Road on Friday evening. A large number of guests were present.

RATION CARDS OF HOMELESS.

The Government of Bombay has decided that the validity of ration cards issued to homeless persons and ration cards issued since April 30 and marked "valid for first and second weeks only" should be extended to the seventh and eighth weeks. The holders of such ration cards, therefore, should preserve them. Authorised distributors are being instructed to supply rations for the seventh and eighth weeks to holders of such cards.

Permanent ration cards have been prepared against the "provisional" ration cards. An intimation has been sent by post to each holder to present himself at the Ward Rationing Office with the provisional ration card and the intimation on the date mentioned in the intimation to receive his permanent ration card. After the sixth week the provisional ration cards will cease to be valid.

RATION CARD-HOLDERS CAN CHANGE DISTRIBUTORS.

It has now been decided to allow ration card-holders in Bombay to change ratail distributors. Ration card holders who wish to change the retail distributor with whom they are registered may do so on application, on the prescribed form, to the Rationing Officer of the ward in which they reside. A slip signed by the Rationing Officer, with a counterfoil, will be pasted on their ration cards. The counterfoil, in which full particulars will be entered by the Rationing Officer, can then be handed over to the new distributor who will enter his name and address on the slip. Ration cardholders should make sure that the authorised retail distributor to whom they propose to change has a vacancy. This does not apply to ration cardholders registered at retail shops run by mills, factories and large organisations. They will not be allowed to change distributors at present.

WAR WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

By D. F. Karaka

There is evidence of a move to help the Indian widows and orphans of those of our men who have died in this war. The first appeals have appeared in the columns of the Indian press and now Sir Purshotamdas Thakurdas makes a similar appeal on behalf of a committee formed to help these women and children. While there is no doubt that this city—and even this whole country—will readily answer a call made for such a cause, one cannot help feeling that we are shirking the real problem, which is: How are you going to help these unfortunate women and children when the novelty of this appeal has died? It is not possible that they can live indefinitely on charity. Nor is it fair to social workers to make this a permanent charge upon them. The widows and orphans of India's fighting men, no matter what we can do for them by individual charity, must become a State Responsibility. I put the word "responsibility" with a capital "R" because it should be a major responsibility—a first charge upon our legislature and our exchequer.

Therefore, I would say to Sir Purshotamdas and those like him who have made appeals in the press to have the matter opened in the Assembly with a Private Member's Bill. There is no doubt that the press and the people of India would willingly give their unequivocal support to such a Bill and neither the Government nor any Member would be found to oppose it.

* * *

It is not fair that the widows and orphans of the men who have been fighting for us on various frontiers and who gave their lives so fighting should be left to the mercy of charity. They should have such help as they need, as of right and not because of charity. I do not say that any extravagant provision should be made for them. The needs of their daily life should be guaranteed to them and our humanity should extend to those whose patriotism we were not slow to tax. The orphans of these fighting men should be assured of a free education in the schools and colleges of our country and Government would find that the educational institutions in India would be willing to help in this direction.

* * *

In the case of the women, it would be advantageous to start an institution to teach them, or those of them who wish to enter it, some art or craft which would enable the women to earn something by their own industry. But here it must be emphasised that our tone should not be one of charity towards them. Charity is for the weak and the helpless, but in this case the Indian soldier has more than paid for what we who are the living will do for his widow and his child. Let us remember that.

In the meanwhile let us support the call made to help the widows and orphans of this war. But something more spectacular must be done than the drab appeal that appears in the local press. I have a feeling this is a call that will be readily answered, if proper arrangements are made to collect the proceeds.

University Of Bombay Teachers' Association

Mr. K. L. Joshi, Hon. Secretary, University of Bombay Teachers' Association, C/o Prof. K. T. Shah, University of Bombay, Bombay writes:—

The need for a strong professional organisation of University teachers as much to cultivate and develop a sense of professional solidarity, as to advance the cause of education and research under the University of Bombay has long been felt. For the latter object, there are, it may be said, already in existence Conferences or Congresses for each group of subjects, where the predominantly academic aspect of the subjects concerned could be discussed by specialists in each. But, the undersigned and those thinking with him believe that for viewing the general policy of University education collectively, for cultivating a due sense of solidarity amongst the teaching fraternity in the University, and for promoting the teachers' interests, safeguarding their rights and attending to their responsibilities, no organisation is in existence. The result is comparative neglect of or indifference towards the rights and obligations of University teachers, their proper status in the community, and a misapprehension of their real role in re-building the national life and restoring its culture.

It was, mainly, to fill this want that Prof. J. C. Daruwala and the undersigned called a meeting of those available in Bombay, and thinking on similar lines, on Saturday the 1st of May; and there resolved to take steps to bring into existence such an organisation at the earliest date practicable. The meeting elected Prof. K. T. Shah Chairman, and appointed a committee to draft a constitution for the proposed organisation, on certain general lines discussed and agreed to at the meeting; as also to make all preliminary arrangements for calling a meeting of the general body of those who sympathise with the idea, and approve of the lines on which the draft constitution is prepared, formally to establish the organization.

A meeting of the General Body of University and College teachers is proposed to be called on Sunday, June 20, at the Convocation Hall, University of Bombay.

From Canberra comes news of the most important event of the whole war against Japan.

Mr. Curtin has consented to feel cautiously optimistic and even to commit himself publicly to the following statement: "I do not think that the enemy can now invade the country."

The enemy's inability has, of course, long been known to the rest of the world. But General MacArthur's success in bringing it home to Mr. Curtin is a victory more sensational than anything yet won against Japan, in any theatre of war on land, sea or in the air.

GANGULEE ON FOOD CONFERENCE

(From A Special Correspondent).

LONDON, June 11.

"An outstanding contribution of the Food Conference was the unanimous agreement among the official delegates that the policy of securing high price through restricted production would be abandoned", said Dr. Gangulee in an interview on the discussions at the United Nations Food Conference at Hot Springs

Dr. Gangulee said: "Fifteen years ago the India Government had a comprehensive report on the problem of Indian agriculture and the commission which drew the report was presided over by the present Viceroy. Most of the recommendations by the United Nations' Food Conference relating to better agricultural production, sound agricultural credit, rural education, transport and marketing, and improved standard of living of India's millions could be found in this report. And yet the progress achieved towards these ends is still invisible".—United Press.

CITY MARKETS

BOMBAY, Friday.

SHARES:—The local Share Bazar was quietly steady with a slightly increased selling in Textile Shares while Steel Shares maintained yesterday's improvement. It is reported some operators are transferring Textile holdings in Steel Shares fearing decline in cloth and yarn prices. The Government is trying to adopt anti-inflationary measures but currency expansion continues and it is difficult to find employment for funds. The war outlook is also encouraging. Thus traders feel somewhat uncertain and are inclined to await developments. Tata Steel Dfd. Shares opened at Rs. 2,045 and after advancing to Rs. 2,065 reacted to Rs. 2,047. Ordinary Shares opened at Rs. 415 and advanced to Rs. 418 but later sagged to Rs. 414. Bombay Dyeing Shares opened at Rs. 1,960 and declined to Rs. 1,937. Century Mill Shares also ruled quiet at Rs. 800.

Later on there was improved demand for Steel Shares and Dfds. advanced to Rs. 2,072 and Ordinary Shares stood at Rs. 420. Bombay Dyeings after declining to Rs. 1,930 advanced to Rs. 1,950 and steadied at Rs. 1,937. Century Shares were quoted at Rs. 809 while Kohinoors after touching Rs. 830 declined to Rs. 814 and rallied to Rs. 822.

Raw Cotton Situation

BOMBAY, June 10.

Messrs. P. Chrystal & Co. have issued the following report:—

The Bombay market has continued in a state of suspended activity. The people in the Bombay cotton market are a conservative lot and take unkindly to new conditions. Without a Hedge Contract most people are at sea. Fortunately this is the time of the year when there is little movement in the interior and when stocks at the ports are on the decline. We shall look forward with interest to what will happen once another crop is ready to be marketed. If it is the intention of Government not to allow us the use of a Hedge Contract at that then the sooner the "powers that be" get ready with an organisation which will allow the flow of cotton from the farmer to the consumer the better, otherwise we can foresee nothing but a complete state of chaos. We have several times been told that we in Bombay were warned by the Finance Member. We in our turn, feel it our duty to warn the Government.

Since the closure of the Hedge Contracts there has been little doing in the Bombay Spot market but meantime the spindles in the Mills have continued to work and the time is approaching if it is not already here when Mills will have to re-enter the market for supplies of certain qualities. The official stock figures of cotton in Bombay look large but when the various qualities are examined it is found that there is not much free cotton of good staple. On Wednesday it was noticeable that the time for further purchases has arrived and quite a large turnover was reported.

The Import Controller has issued quite a large number of licences for Egyptian cotton but now that we have them it is reported that there is no freight space available. We do not forget that a lot of tonnage went to waste two months ago. In the meantime carrying charges in Alexandria are mounting up. The shippers in Egypt will claim that they are entitled to be paid and we contend that as the delay was caused by the arbitrary action of the Government of India, if there is any justice, then the latter ought to hold themselves responsible to the trade for these unusual and unexpected expenses. Meantime those fortunate people who managed to get unsold cotton over to Bombay are making a clear profit of about Rs. 100 per candy owing to the meagre supplies of such cotton in Bombay caused by the interference with the normal flow of cotton.

We have been drinking Lipton's tea in India since the Lord knows when. And Lipton's are one of the firms of some standing, built on years of association with this country. That is why a word of gentle advice is necessary to this firm whose recent trend in advertising is not quite the sort of stuff we approve of. Lipton's must remember that they are advertising should concentrate on their tea and NOT on doing propaganda of the type which we might expect from those who want to show the disunity that is India. On various matters recently we are shown Indians as disagreeing among themselves. The one I do not particularly like is the rather ridiculous one of Indians shouting: Akhand, Pakistan, Deadlock, Reconciliation. "In matters of politics India disagrees, but all are unanimous in using Lipton's Yellow Label Tea". One cannot help feeling that this sort of advertising could not be very helpful to Lipton's and my advice to them is to inform their agents to discontinue this tone in their advertising. There are so many other better ways in which Lipton's have advertised in the past. I see no reason why Lipton's should want to join this reactionary chorus which insists on saying that India is disunited. This is a word of friendly advice. We will wait to see if it is acted upon.

It is gratifying to learn from our OWN issue of yesterday that the "Bombay Chronicle" has a correspondent in Kouibyshev, where some Russian is translating the "Mahabharata."

Ceylon And Constitutional Reform

COLOMBO, June 8: The Ceylon Board of Ministers have accepted His Majesty's Government's declaration on constitutional reforms and propose to draft a constitution for Ceylon with all possible despatch. A statement to this effect on behalf of the Board of Ministers was made in the State Council to-day by Mr. D. S. Senanayake, leader of the State Council.

He said, "We have given the declaration the interpretation that we think it is intended to bear and we propose to inform the Secretary of State for the Colonies that we are proceeding to frame a constitution in accordance with our interpretation."

Remarking that the most important part of the declaration is that which undertakes to confer full responsible government in matters of internal civil administration, the statement says there will be substantial gains in the form of abolition of officers of the State and transfer of their functions to responsible ministers; acquisition of complete control over public service; acquisition by the legislature of full control over finance and the abolition of special powers conferred on the Governor by his present constitution. There will be no qualifications to internal self-Government except the Governor's power to reserve the Bill for Royal assent.

"Even in respect of defence and external relations, the declaration marks a definite advance," the statement declares, adding: "It does not promise everything for which we asked. We do not like qualifications. We think, however, the offer should be accepted in the belief, on the one hand, that the qualifications are unnecessary and, on the other, that they would decay from disuse as similar qualifications have decayed elsewhere. We also wish to point out that a responsible Government, and that Government alone, would be entitled to speak for Ceylon in conferences of the British Commonwealth and the councils of nations.

The Ministers do not regard the condition that the commission or conference which will examine the draft constitution cannot meet until victory as necessarily binding. The war may enter a phase in which consideration of these constitutional problems will become easier.

Referring to restrictions in relation to defence and external affairs, the Ministers say: "The declaration does not assert that defence and external affairs would be withdrawn from the scope of self-Government. These subjects would be transferred from the Chief Secretary to a responsible Minister."
